The Power of Story

Many years ago when I was being considered by Presbytery if I was called to be a lay preacher, part of the journey was to present to the Presbytery in Session. I arrived at the appointed time when the person guiding me through the process asked if I had my five minute story of my faith journey ready to tell.

I will point out that this was the first time she told me such a task was required, and the empty look in my eyes was shadowed by the panic in hers as she realised she had forgotten to tell me. I then looked at my guide and said relax you're asking an Irishman to tell a story about himself!

And the best bit – I now have a story to tell!

Over the last few week's I have really been captivated by the concept of story and how powerful it is.

When you put the words story and the bible into Google and you get many choices in fact it is quite a long list including things like:

Patience	Trusting God
Prayer	Faith
Obedience	Family
Love

Did you know that the word story only appears in two passages in the Bible, both in the Hebrew Scriptures and both in 2 Chronicles, neither of which is pretty reading.

As we start to head towards Christmas and the Christmas story that we all know so well (or do we?). I wonder what is the story of the bible. For me it is a story of Patience and Prayer, a story of Faith and Obedience, a story of Trusting God and most of all a story of Love and Grace

But what is your story?

Is it a story that only has laughter and joy in it, maybe it has some chapters that are based on the themes sorrow hardship and pain. I know when I read the scriptures that there are many stories that contain the latter.

So how does your personal story intersect with the bible story? I would dare to suggest that if you are reading this then it must intersect in a meaningful way! What is it about that intersection that is meaningful, and what draws you back to that story.

The story of the bible is one also about sharing, sharing the good news of Jesus Christ, and as we head into the busyness of year end how are you going to take time to share your story with others so that they may truly understand what Christmas is all about.

*God Bless,
Rev Neil Storey*

Retired Clergy Gather

Retired Clergy from the Presbytery and their spouses (twenty-four in all) gathered on 28 October at Glasshouse Uniting Church for morning tea. Rev Ray Nutley (Acting Presbytery Minister) and his wife Helen joined us for a time of sharing stories, food and fellowship. Members talked about their ongoing involvement in their local churches, Presbytery and Synod and it was good to hear their stories and how they continue to be as active in their retirement as they are able. Thanks to Rev Elizabeth Nolan for coordinating. The ongoing collegiality of the ministry is alive and well! Next gathering will be 25th March at Tewantin UC.

A LOOK AT LIFE WITH MARY FLETCHER

Mary turned 98 years young October 2 2024

Below is an article from Nambour Uniting Church's NeXus Journal June 2021

LEARNING FROM DANIEL

I attend a KNOW YOUR BIBLE (KYB) study group each week and this term we are studying the Old Testament book of Daniel – which tells the powerful story of Daniel and his three friends experiencing God at work in their lives.

This leads to some big questions for us to answer and we are all challenged to remember a time in our lives when, like Daniel and his three friends, God allowed suffering in our personal lives.

I was brought back to the day in 1959 when I was at home in Australia on furlough from Western Samoa where I had been working for the growing Methodist Church in their newly opened Wesley Bookshop. I was shocked and very disappointed to receive a letter telling me I was not needed to return.

But I did not challenge my faith, but I experienced the peace of God as I asked why? And I was led on to work through the upsetting days, and then the Methodist Church Overseas Mission Board sent me to All Saints Missionary Training College in Sydney and from there was appointed to the Mission Station at YIRRKALA in ARNHEM LAND in the Northern Territory.

God allowed this experience in my life – challenged my faith but led me on through the 19 years of challenging and rewarding years of knowing His love, guidance and the amazing blessing of being able to be used in the developing of the Aboriginal communities at YIRRKALA and ELCHO ISLAND in Arnhem Land - and it challenged me.

The question in our Bible Study group for the first week of this term still remains – did God allow suffering in your life and did it affect your faith?

And the answer is YES & NO – God did allow me to suffer and it challenged me, but it did not affect my faith in any way.

I don't even remember ever questioning God in that way and I am thankful for the wonder of the on-going love, strength, leading and guidance through the days of my life, right through until this very time.

The Palmwoods Community Garden, “Soil & Soul” emerged when I was asked to take on a more significant role in the church than working one day a week as Community Pastor. When I began working with both the existing congregation and the community for two days a week, I realised that the church owned land that had been sitting dormant for a long time (due to the Uniting process and the Presbyterians’ move to the Methodist church). I suggested that these two blocks should be either sold and the money put to good use in the community, or the land itself used as a point of connection with the community. Hence, the suggestion of a Community Garden.

After much church, community and professional consultation the Soil & Soul Palmwoods Community Garden came about and has since evolved into a new area of ministry. Some aspects we had hoped for and others we hadn’t envisaged but came about from promptings of needs, dreams and, I believe, the nudge of God that sparks in humanity and creation. The land is thereby leased by the Palmwoods Community & Business Association from the Uniting Church at no cost.

We have regular gatherings of gardening, Reflection in the Garden, shared meals and now a Harvest Swap. Members pay a small annual fee to care for the garden as a co-operative where produce and work is shared, or some pay for a private bed to grow veggies as individuals, families or Community Groups. Fruit trees, herbs & flowers are also grown and there is a Bush Tukka Garden and a Free Pantry for those in need.

We also hold special events such as Concerts, Workshops on Gardening and Bush Craft for young and mature, Red Bench Launch for awareness of DV, Multicultural Meals (Lovo & Bush Tukka), and special Working Bees for big jobs such as erecting the new shed. Some members come to church; some come to Reflection in the Garden which focusses on creation to practice mindfulness, sometimes meditation, storytelling and art forms; others just find solace by coming to the garden and looking to the hills, having a chat, sharing a meal, or getting a helping hand from the produce or the Free Pantry.

The garden is a place to build relationships with each other, our community, nature and our creator. It is good for the mind, body and spirit. It is also a place for education on sustainability, inclusiveness and to encourage respectful relationships and discussions. Besides the blessing of the church paying the rates, we gain income for insurance, tools etc. by membership fees, grants from government and community agencies, and winning prizes such as the Healthy Towns Award. We also collect rainwater from our neighbours shed, make our own compost and try to keep the garden as sustainable as possible.

As I have a second job managing a bookshop, I am able to use this as a conduit for sharing information about the garden and getting to know local people and families and gaining their trust. The bookshop shares its space with a café and large garden in the middle of town, so this aligns well.

Our Sunday Worship group is a small but diverse and friendly congregation; however we now see our community family as being something much larger with the opportunity to carry out the directive of Jesus to love our neighbours without judgement and to share what we have while caring for all creation.

It could be said that we are literally, spiritually and figuratively trying to find our common ground whilst also seeking to plant seeds that will grow under our Creator’s guidance.

Maybe one day there could be a Community Hub in this space where people could meet for services, sharing, counselling, repairing things, learning and all sorts of life affirming activities.

- Reflection in the Garden’ is held on the 2nd Sunday of the month,
- Palmwoods Harvest Swap is held on the 2nd Sunday
- Collective Gardening is held on Sunday afternoons
- People gather for a Shared Meal under the shelter after gardening on the 4th Sunday of the month

OUT OF THE SHADOWS

P3

On September 10, the Maryborough Mental Health Forum supported Lifeline's Out of the Shadows Walk at the Brolga Theatre, observing World Suicide Prevention Day with a powerful gathering. Twenty-six participants took part in a time of reflection and conversation, highlighting the urgent need for mental health awareness.

Attendees shared their thoughts and experiences supported by Coffee Tribe Espresso and breakfast provided by Maryborough Rotary. The event underscored the importance of community support and open dialogue around mental health issues.

These local Out of the Shadows Walks invite Australians to participate in a 9km walk, symbolizing the nine lives lost to suicide each day. By walking together, conversations are sparked and connections made, encouraging everyone to seek help and support.

Communities across the state including Toowoomba (C100+ Tanya Richards), Maryborough (C100+ Delma Lovell) & Ripley (C100+ Russell Reynoldson) gathered together raising awareness and funds to support this vital cause and the work of Lifeline.

UCA Qld Synod staff also supported this event, setting aside time and walking together.

Let's continue to unite to step out of the shadows and promote hope and healing.

Howard Church Bell Restoration

The historic church bell at Howard Church has been successfully reinstalled, thanks to the diligent efforts of Greg Walker. He undertook the meticulous task of cleaning, painting and safely installing the bell. This cherished bell, fondly remembered during the church's 140th anniversary celebrations, is once again ready to call the community to worship, symbolizing God's presence in our lives.

Ring the Church Bell—Poem

Now it rings so clear, a sound so divine.
Gather 'round, oh people, to the sound of the bell.
Now the bell calls us back, to this sacred place.
Gather 'round, oh people, to the sound of the bell.
The bell's sweet music, a gift of grace.
Gather 'round, oh people, to the sound of the bell.
Bring praises to the Almighty.
Gather 'round, oh people, to the sound of the bell.
Now it rings so clear, a sound so divine.

Caloundra Uniting Church Update

Yes, it's all happening according to plan!

It does take time but we are on to the next stage: the roof repairs are on target and we are back to using the hall again. You can see from the photos how pleased we are to have our space back for Messy Church and for Uniforms 4 Kids. Other groups are ready to resume this month.

We have been so fortunate to have so much support from the community for the use of their facilities – the Caloundra Community Centre for Uniting Community Breakfasts, Messy Church and Explorers, local retirement villages for Table Tennis and the Art Group, The Guide Hall for 'mainly music'. Other groups and meetings have been in people's homes and at Coffee shops. Huge thanks to them all as we move back into our own space.

The renovations to the Worship Centre can now get underway in earnest and we are so grateful to be able to continue to worship in the lovely Unity College Chapel as they continue.

Treasurer Ron reports that our budget for the building is going well so far – further funds will help to provide the extras and landscaping etc when the work is complete.

Thanks for your prayers. The wonderful thing has been that our outreach and all activities have continued and indeed thrived in this time of change.

Keep the prayers coming as we look forward to the future!

“Are you tired? Worn out? Burned out on religion? Come to me. Get away with me and you’ll recover your life. I’ll show you how to take a real rest. Walk with me and work with me—watch how I do it. Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. (Matt. 11: 28-29)

A PLACE OF TRANSFORMATION

Living on an acre of land in the Sunshine Coast Hinterland we love sharing our quiet hideaway with others.

There is plenty of space to sit quietly and contemplate, or walk the local streets and renew both body and mind.

Since settling here scores of people have come, experienced our hospitality and left renewed and ready to live out their life in Christ.

Prayer

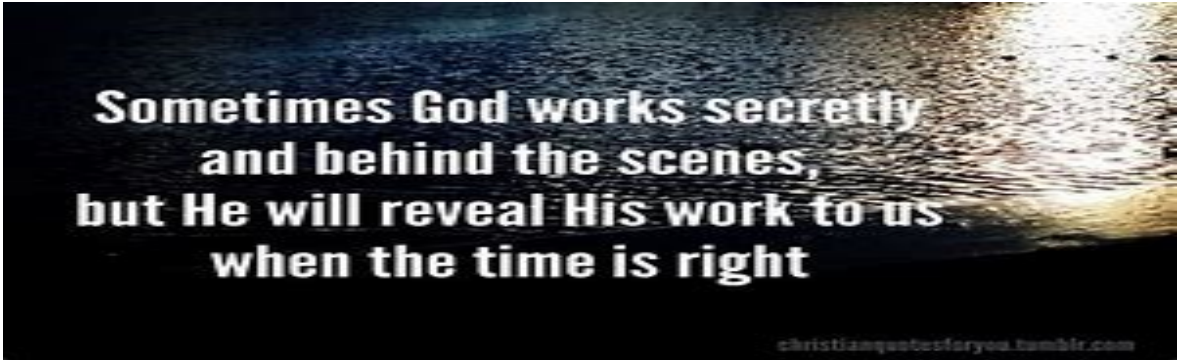

God of the Journey,
As we walk the streets of our lives,
Guide our footsteps through this bustling city.
Renew our tired feet and weary spirits,
As we journey towards Your promises.

Spirit, lead Your church down new avenues,
Out of ruts that have trapped and side-tracked us from Your way.
May each step bring transformation,
As we move, with You, towards Your divine destination.

Renew our purpose at each intersection we cross,
Refresh our vision at every turning.
May we find good travelling companions on this journey,
Those who gladden our hearts
And strengthen our legs for the next right step.

Let the rhythm of our walking
Echo the beating of Your heart.
Bring us, changed and energized,
To the place You've prepared for us.

A well of life for weary walkers
And refreshing for tired travellers
Where we may be renewed and restored
To journey alongside others
As we together travel towards you.
In Jesus' name,
Amen.

Montville Reflection Gallery

Rev. Dr Geraldine Wheeler

Today, we welcomed back as a valued exhibiting artist, the Rev. Geraldine Wheeler. Geraldine writes that she "is a retired minister of the Uniting Church in Australia who has been using images as visual interpretation of scripture to complement preaching and teaching in words and as a means of entering into prayer and meditation for several decades. She has drawn, painted and made prints from school days, studying art at high school (B.G.G.S.) under Mr Timmermans (1957-1960) and taking adult classes over the years with artists such as Clem Forbes, Wim de Vos and Michael Winters. She is three times winner of the Maleny Art Awards Christian Theme section and is founder/coordinator of the ecumenical group of artists in S. E. Queensland, Visionaries, which began in 1998 when she was minister at Merthyr Road New Farm UCA. While she has worked in pastels and oils, and made linocut prints, some hand coloured, most of her work in the last 30 years has been painting through stencils in gouache on black paper, as did Margaret Preston towards the end of her life. Geraldine's Ph. D. thesis (ACU 2004) examined the possibilities for the role of visual art within the theological understanding of the Reformed Tradition of Christianity. Her major academic field in recent decades has been the church and visual art, including teaching a course, which provided an overview of the field, through the Brisbane College of Theology until its closure. All the works in the Montville Reflection Gallery this year, 2024, are gouache stencil paintings and they have a range of themes. Several relate to Psalms, 139, 84 and 121, two are referencing Rocamadour, France, as a place of prayer, three are from the 'Picturing Biblical Women' series and others suggest themes for Advent."
